

Les Vieilles Pierres, Côtes du Rhône Villages

France | Rhône

Art. Nr. 40925

Wine Description

The wine exudes multi-layered scents of red fruits and spicy aromas. One recognises blackberry, redcurrant, cherries, but also liquorice and orange. On the palate, the wine is very elegant and juicy. The fine tannins are perfectly balanced and matched to the fruit aromas and spice. A harmonious, well-balanced red wine with a lasting finish.

Region Description

Wines from the Côtes du Rhone Village may only be marketed if they meet the strict requirements of the responsible committee with regard to alcohol content and harvest quantities. Only if all the grapes come from the vineyards of a village may the name of the village also appear on the label, as is the case here with Laudun.

Food Pairing:

Hearty meat dishes are a good choice here, for example, lamb dishes, roast beef or game with mushrooms. Do not forget to refine the sauce with a dash of wine. Also a good companion to omelette, dried salami and pizza.
