

Big Feet

South Africa | Durbanville

Art. Nr. 52365

Wine Description

The cellar master, Liza Goodwin, wanted this wine to be smooth and extremely fruity, unlike any wine she had made before, so she selected the Pinotage grape and allowed these to ripen to their full potential. The end result is a rich wine with an intense plum fruitiness and a hint of spice which due to Herman Coertze's inspiration and its heritage can only be called one thing, "Big Feet, pressed for Elephants".

BIG FEET.....BIG STORY.....BIG WINE

Region Description

As you drive out of Cape Town with the majestic and imposing table mountain in your rear-view mirror heading towards Durbanville you soon arrive at Meerendal.

The Meerendal wine Estate has been producing fine quality wines since the 1700's, but alongside this tradition and history the owner of the Farm, Herman Coertze is always at the cutting edge of innovation and new developments. This year Meerendal Farm will be once again the starting point for the ABSA Cape Epic, an incredible mountain bike race of 800km, only the toughest will complete the course.

Two of Herman's passions are wine and the beautiful wildlife of his native South Africa, especially the endangered African Elephant and he wanted one to be able to support the other. To do this he asked his cellar master, Liza Goodwin, to make a high-quality wine to be named after these magnificent animals and have 1 Rand for every bottle sold to be donated to the Elephant foundation (so far R150,000 has been raised through the sales of this wine).

Food Pairing:

The wine goes excellently with pizza and pasta dishes and lets grilled chicken or pork appear in a completely different, new light!
