

Pinot Blanc Fume

Germany | Nahe

Art. Nr. 55409

Wine Description

The diverse terroir of our vineyards creates multifaceted and interesting variations of Pinot Blanc. Shortly after the harvest, our cellar master Oliver Dries recognized the potential of some plots for a wine inspired by the more classic Burgundy style. The use of wooden barrels during the aging process of the wine is recognisable in the taste. Elegant vanilla followed by spicy notes and a hint of brioche. Then the wine shows a fine fruity aroma with notes of ripe banana. A well-integrated acidity together with the good balance of herbaceous notes and wood creates an overall very harmonious and smooth wine with a great mouthfeel.

Region Description

The Pieroth Estate, located in the Nahe growing region, is an inspiring place full of history. The vineyards are characterised by a variety of soil types. Riesling & white Pinot varieties form the core of our wine portfolio. Gentle processing and harvesting by hand as well as minimal intervention in the cellar define our craft.
