

Pieroth Art Grüner Veltliner

Austria

Art. Nr. 56657

Wine Description

The Pieroth Art Grüner Veltliner, from the renowned wine region of Austria, is a delightfully dry and crisp white wine with primary aromas of apple, pear, and hay, and secondary notes of banana and mirabelle. This wine is made from the Grüner Veltliner grape variety, which is known for its aromatic, fresh, fruity, and harmonious style. On the palate, this wine is refreshing and lively with a perfect balance of acidity and fruit flavours. The apple and pear flavors blend beautifully with the tropical notes of banana and mirabelle, creating a harmonious and complex flavour profile that is a true delight for the senses.

Food Pairing:

Pair this wine with grilled white meats, seafood, or vegetarian dishes, and serve between 8-10°C for the best experience. With its crisp acidity, subtle fruit flavor, and refreshing finish, the Pieroth Art Grüner Veltliner is the perfect wine to elevate any meal to a new level of sophistication and enjoyment.
