

Pieroth Gold

Germany

Art. Nr. 57263

Wine Description

Our beautiful golden Sekt (sparkling wine) is both exuberant, but also soft and very comfortable on the tongue. Its pearls come naturally from the wine and are not added, as is the case with many other sekts and with its sparkling edible gold flakes it really is a showstopper for any occasion. This Sekt has a light straw colour and has delicate aromas of peach, pears, apples. The taste is mildly dry, fresh, juicy with a long and crisp pleasantly sparkling finish. It is ideal as an aperitif, that can also be enjoyed as an accompaniment to meals ranging from fish to dessert.

Region Description

Sekt is the German equivalent to Champagne. Sekts are produced by the champagne method (double fermentation) from clusters that can be grapes of various varieties, vintages and areas, but they must be 100% grown in Germany.

Food Pairing:

A fantastic wine for just drinking on its own but also with seafood and shellfish and its price makes it even more enjoyable.
