

Chevalier de Bayard Rosé

France | Languedoc

Art. Nr. 57306

Wine Description

Our flagship wine is of course Chevalier de Bayard rouge - the Rosé is a very popular summer wine with a perfect balance of fruitiness and crispness. The Syrah and Grenache varieties used to produce this lovely Rosé result in a salmon pink wine, packed full of raspberry and strawberry fruit aromas, a delightful addition for the sunshine.

Region Description

Pierre Terrail, Seigneur de Bayard (1473 - 1524) was a French soldier, generally known as the Chevalier de Bayard. Throughout the centuries since his death, he has been known as "the knight without fear and beyond reproach (le chevalier sans peur et sans reproche). He himself however, preferred the name given him by his contemporaries for his generosity and kindness, "le bon chevalier", or "the good Knight". On the front of all of our bottles of this best-selling wine is a golden embossing of the Knight, mounted on horse-back in full amour.

The wines of the d'Oc stretch from Avignon to Perpignan, where near perfect growing conditions are to be found.

Food Pairing:

Seafood, poultry, crudités, salads and dips
